

Daniel Katz Awarded ICSC NextGen 4 Under 40

May 29, 2019

New York, New York – ICSC NextGen committee announced the 4 Under 40 honorees on May 19 at RECon in Las Vegas. The 2019 award was added to the Global Awards Ceremony, where hundreds of industry guests celebrated retail’s top leaders and their work. Among this year’s recipients is Daniel Katz, Founder and Managing Partner of NYC-based KPR.

“I’m excited to have received this great honor and be included in the distinguished list of recipients,” notes Daniel “Building a company over the last 15 years has been an amazing and challenging experience. I’ve been extremely fortunate to have a strong, supportive, and loyal team around me.”

The ICSC NextGen 4 Under 40 award recognizes the rising talent that is shaping today’s retail industry. Daniel is joined by fellow honorees, Carren Ballenger, Director of Real Estate at New York City-based Shake Shack Enterprises; Whitney Livingston, CRRP, Chief Operating Officer, Projects at Dallas-based Centennial Real Estate LLC and Joseph M. Tichar, President & COO of New York City-based Raider Hill Advisors.

About KPR:

With over 15 years of real estate investment experience, KPR has a defined strategy of acquiring retail properties, with a primary focus on grocery-anchored shopping centers and power villages, within well-located US submarkets. We are a vertically integrated investor with in-house leasing, management and development operations tailored to maximize value through proactive leasing, repositioning, and redevelopment of our properties.

Established in Boston in 2003, KPR has since expanded its footprint in 14 states within the greater New England, New York State, Mid-Atlantic, and Southeast submarkets. Our successful track record of strategic acquisitions and dispositions has led us to transactions and trusted partnerships with public REITs, institutions, private equity groups, and family offices.
